

2009 Anthony Munoz Foundation Lineman of the Year Awards Program

Last Update: 12/09 10:53 am

The Anthony Munoz Foundation 2009 Linemen of the Year Awards the top Offensive and Defensive Linemen in the Tri-State region.

In keeping with the mission of the Foundation, candidates have to show a level of academic success and community involvement.

High school freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors are eligible.

Linemen of the Year Awards will be presented to each of the following:

- Ohio Divisions 1-6
- Kentucky
- Indiana

From this group of winners, Anthony will select two student-athletes to be recognized as the overall Offensive and Defensive Linemen of the Year at the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Banquet held on Thursday, February 18th, 2010.

Linemen of the Year Selection Committee Dave Lapham Sr. - Former Cincinnati Bengal offensive lineman and current Bengals radio color analyst Dave Lapham Jr. - High School Football Commentator, ESPN Radio 1360, and FoxSports Michael Muñoz - Former University of Tennessee offensive lineman and AMF Board Member.

Nomination process is open until Friday, December 11th, 2009.

Related Links

- ♦ Anthony Munoz Foundation 2009 Linemen of the Year Awards web site

